PRIVACY POLICY

New Beginning Financial Group, LLC, like all providers of personal financial and income tax preparation services, is required by law to inform our clients of our policies regarding privacy and client information. We have always been committed to protecting your personal information and right to privacy.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

We collect non-public personal information about you that is provided to us by you or obtained with your authorization. We collect and use this information to service your accounts and respond to your requests.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any non-public information obtained during our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees, and in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. We may refer this information to an affiliated financial service or tax professional where such referral is thought to be in your interest. Please advise us if instead you would require us to hold all information, including basic directory information, confidential under any circumstance. We restrict access to non-public personal information to those professionals necessary to helping you achieve your goals, and we maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard your non-public information.

Confidentiality and Security

Our Employees, Financial Representatives and Tax Preparers are required to follow procedures with respect to maintaining the confidentiality of our clients' non-public personal information.

Please call us if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.
